Act I. Daisy Comstock (always lounging round with a paper-covered novel). Well, sister Kate, what traps and plans have you laid for to-day? You look as if you were just brimful of business. Kate Comstock. Why do you ask such a silly question? I am sure I know of nothing different, or unusual, from other days. Daisy Comstock. I should judge from your appearance, at present, they were otherwise. Kate Comstock (thinking a moment and shrugging her shoulders). Well! it does please me very much when I think how green with jealousy the Woods will turn when told by the Taylors who composed my clique here. Daisy Comstock. Ha, ha, ha! Is that the latest bulletin from you this morning? Decidedly rich, I must confess I Nevertheless, do you think people are so blind as not to see how you maneuver to get with them? You have to lie awake all night planning how you can secure them through the day. People can easily see through your tricks. Your efforts are so desperate you can not hide them. Take my word for it, these people would n t notice you if you were to go to their towns. Now, you see if they don t make excuses about exchanging cards with you when they are going home. Kate Comstock. Count me one ahead,...
