Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.SAVE ONE-THIRD! Depending on where you buy these books individually, you could pay more than eighty dollars, but if you order this 594-page first Volume of Peter Sharp Legal Mysteries compilations, containing books one through six for only $49.95, you will save at least one-third of the retail price. and that savings will continue for the similarly-priced compilation Volumes 2 and 3, which will also each contain six complete unabridged books. By way of background for this series, in 2003 Gene Grossman retired from the practice of law, and drew upon his 20 years as a trial attorney to create the first Peter Sharp Legal Mystery - and during the next decades he succeeded in writing fifteen books in the series, and went on to spin-off the most interesting character into a brand new series - the Suzi B. Mysteries. Now, Gene is breaking new ground again by offering readers the complete text of the first six books in the Peter Sharp series, so that avid readers can have them all in one volume, and save money at the same time. The same cast of characters appear every book of the series, but each one stands on its own and is a completely new story with no references to any of the previous one, so that you can start reading anyone of them at any time, without feeling that you ve missed. With this set of the first six, you ll have an opportunity to read the first one first. It gives a little more of the back story about how Peter and Suzi started their law practice. Here is a complete list of the Peter Sharp Legal...
