Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book describes what it takes to be an exceptional leader today and explains this at three levels. Personal - being the most effective leader you can be in your personal and professional life. Personal leadership is foundational and means taking charge of your life and becoming the leader you are truly inspired to be. Team - developing people and building high performance teams. Team leadership is for those who choose to step up to the leadership of others and who wish to unlock the potential of people and teams. Strategic - aligning culture, strategy and vision to create exceptional organisations. Strategic leadership is for those who want to step up to the challenge of building great organisations and who wish to build long term sustainable success. Whatever the level of your aspirations and whatever the source of your inspiration this book will have suggestions, guidelines and a practical action plan for you. For companies around the world, a shortage of leaders is one of the greatest impediments to growth. The challenge is particularly acute today as the global recovery strengthens, companies seek to grow their businesses in new markets, and older leaders retire at accelerating rates.
