PREFACE The papers here presented together are republished, the first three from the Proceedings of the American Pharmaceutical Association for 1860, and the fourth from the American Journal of Pharmacy for January, 1870. In the discussion which followed the reading of the Report on the U. S. Pharmacopoeia before the Association, objections were made to the extent and character of the changes recommended in the Report. Although these objections were not general, nor the objectors sufficiently numerous to express the sense of the Association, yet as the principal objections came from Prof. Procter, who was a member of the Committee on the Pharmacopoeia, and whose judgment is entitled to great respect, the writer offered the following resolution to accompany the Report when published, and the resolution was adopted: Moved by Dr. Squibb, that in the reference of his report on the Pharmacopoeia to the Executive Committee for publication in the Proceedings. the report be prefaced by the distinct statement that the Association, in publishing this report. does not endorse the judgment of the reporter in his recommendation to dismiss so many articles. The Note on Rhubarb for 186U will be best understood when read in continuation of a similar note which was published in the Proceedings of the American Pharmaceutical Association for 1868, at page 452. The Note on Collodion, by Mr. Mussgiller, was prepared in the laboratory of the writer, the experiments being conducted with care and accuracy by Mr. Mussgiller, under...
