Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Speech of Mr. Pickens, of South Carolina, in the House of Representatives: January 21, 1836, on the Abolition Question The resolution of Mr. Wise, declaring that Congress has no power under the Constitution to abolish Slavery in the District of Columbia, c., being under consideration - Mr. Pickens rose, and observed that he regretted exceedingly the necessity that induced him to say any thing on the interesting and deeply exciting topics before the House. Sir, when I had occasion, some weeks since, to make a few remarks on this subject, I, as well as the party I have the honor to be associated with, were then denounced as attempting to raise a discussion and excitement for party purposes. It was said that, like the Hartford-convention men and the abolitionists, we were put down and sunk in the country, and that we desired some sectional excitement to raise us from our weak position, c. I would disdain to notice this, if the charge had originated from, and been confined to, a miserable whipster editor, who has...
