I feel a little nervous about it, but I must shake off that kind of feeling. My mind is made up, I am determined to get possession of Joe Stone's property. I know he has got it, and I don't see the use of his hoarding it up. His mine turns out very well. I can get no work-but I'm not particular about that, for I don't like to feel obliged to work continually and earn only a little at a time. But I must have money and I don't know of any easier way to get it than to take that. I may not succeed but if he will not tell me where it is, why, - I shall be obliged to get rid of him, then I can search for it myself, without any interruption from him. There is no one else has any...
