Excerpt: . that alone by which the true knowledge of G-od hath been, is, and can be only revealed, And in Prop. ii. (p. 66)-- As the description of the light of the sun, or of curious colours, xto a blind man, who, though of the largest capacity, cannot so well understand it by the most acute and lively description, as a child can by seeing them; so neither can the natural man, of the largest capacity, by the best words, even Scripture words, so well understand the mysteries of God s kingdom, as the least and weakest child who tasteth them, by having them revealed inwardly and objectively by the Spirit. And in the v. and vi. Prop, he says: -- And this Light enlighteneth the hearts of all for a time, in order to salvation; and this is it which reproves the sin...
